DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 80, 90 are allowed.
2. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

The closest prior art shows the method for revision of attributes of selected objects but does not disclose graphical user interface comprising: a value ascertainer to ascertain at least one attribute value for the display element based upon the composite view, wherein said value ascertainer is configured to: when the attribute is single-valued, search each of the plurality of views contained by the composite view for a value for the attribute and return the value, when the attribute is multi-valued, collect all values for the attribute for each of plurality of views contained by said composite view, merge the values obtained by the collecting, and return the merged values. The graphical user interface enables the determination of display element attribute values for a display element that represent object in a composite view.
